In Loving Tribute of Christopher Duane Cable

Christopher Duane Cable was born in San Francisco, California on September 30, 1960 to Elijah and Mattie Cable.

Chris came to Christ at an early age. He was a member of St. John Missionary Baptist Church and was baptized by Rev. R.L. Johnson. Chris was active in the Youth Department under the supervision of Sis. Mattie Cable. He sang in the Youth Choir, attended Sunday School regularly, and was an avid BTU participant. Every Sunday evening he and Deacon Cable traveled from neighborhood-to-neighborhood picking up underprivileged children throughout the City of Richmond. Needless to say, we had the largest BTU Department in the Bay Area.

At age 19, Chris relocated to Southern California in pursuit of computer technology and higher education. He was widely sought after for his computer literacy and technical skills. Chris found that working with his hands was his God-given gift. To those that knew him, he earned the reputation as one who could fix anything.

He was known for his charm and outgoing personality. Chris was large in statue, but often referred to as a gentle spirit with a heart felt smile and contagious laugh. Chris was loved by all those who knew him.

We trust that Chris' home going will stir up a better hope in those who remain. Scriptures tell us that where our treasure is, there our heart will be also. God will sometimes take a member of our family on this side so that the eternal home that He has prepared for our heavenly family will become real to us.

Although the family circle on this side has been broken, Chris, being the first of the eight Cable siblings to go home, he now joins the cloud of great witnesses that encourage and eagerly await our arrival. We have this confidence, those of us who remain shall meet him again.

Chris leaves behind his father and mother, Elijah and Mattie Cable; three brothers, Lionel, Leroy and Michael Cable; four sisters, Claudette Hamilton, Jennifer Cable, Janice Session, Pamela Onafowode; many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Chris especially cherished his relationship with his nephew, Morris Holmes and niece, Michelle Gill. Growing up together, they embraced one another as sisters and brothers.

At Rest

This world gave me so many things to do
But because I completed my test
God gave me wings to fly away
To my heavenly home
There I can be at rest
